Our UVP

Unique Value Proposition

Coltoys dog toys are the answer for all pet parents looking for durable, safe, natural, free of toxic agents and free of phthalates products.

Our products are the answer for those pet parents in search of toys that can contribute to the benefit and wellness of their dog. Some of the attributes we can offer are: interactive toys to keep their instinct alive, teeth and gum cleaning, relieving excess of energy and avoiding boredom.

Our toys are the safer and natural alternative to nylon and plastic. The high quality, eye-catching designs and affordable prices make them a great option for all pet parents. All these qualities are possible through natural rubber. The fruit of the hevea tree, the perfect raw material to create plant-based products.
